Suffragettes Jailed After Bold
Attempt to Break Into Solenn Conclave of British Statesmen in Downing Street.

(By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.)
London, Jan. 28.—Suffragettes today made a bold attempt to break into a meeting of the British cabinet council, sitting at the official residence of Premier Asquith in Downing street.

An automobile belonging to the woman's social and political union, with a woman chauffeur at the wheel and filled with suffragettes, dashed from Whitehall into Downing street before the line of police stationed outside the Asquith residence realized what was going on.

When the driver refused to obey the order of the police inspector on duty to retire from the street, the entire party of women was placed under arrest and taken to the police headquarters at Scotland yard.

Virtue Her Own Reward.

The women were later arraigned at Dow street, where three refused to give their names and were entered in the chargebooks under numbers. The other one, who had acted as driver, said she was Miss Virtue and was the private secretary of "General" Mrs. Flora Drummond, a prominent suffragette. Miss Virtue is said to be engaged to marry a Montana rancher as soon as women have been granted the vote in Great Britain.

Each of the suffragettes made a short speech in court about the ill-treatment of women in jail.

All the prisoners were bound over to be of good behavior for six months.

QUINTETTE PINCHED
DENY IMPEACHMENT

(By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.)
Pittsburgh, Pa., Jan. 28.—The following statement concerning the robbery of passengers on Baltimore & Ohio train No. 197 at Zanesville, O., was given out at the company's offices here today:

"Early this morning six men boarded train 195 at Cambridge, O., each holding a ticket to Zanesville, and started robbing passengers. A purse containing a watch & Co. was taken from Mrs. Karmeter of Evans City, Pa., and an overcoat, watch and $45 from W. J. Robinson, another passenger. The conductor detected the men and captured Harry Warner, who was placed under arrest in Zanesville. The other five men escaped. When searched Warner had in his possession the articles taken from Mrs. Karmeter and Mr. Robinson."

FIVE MEN ARRESTED FOR DARING ROBBERY

Zanesville, O., Jan. 28.—Five men were arrested here today in connection with the robbery of passengers on Baltimore & Ohio passenger train number 195 just outside of this city early this morning. One other is being sought. The six men are alleged to have boarded the train at Cambridge.

After robbing several passengers, five of the men escaped. Harry Warner, the sixth, was arrested as he jumped from the train.

George Anderson, Thomas Shaylor, Charles Lloyd and Charles Sipes, all of Cambridge, were arrested later and are being held by the police. All came from Cambridge on the train. All are well known in Cambridge and deny any knowledge of the robbery.

GIRLS! STOP WASHING THE HAIR WITH SOAP
Soap Dries Your Scalp, Causing Damage to Their Hair Falls Out—
TRY THIS NEXT TIME.

After washing your hair with soap always apply a little balsam to the scalp to invigorate the hair and prevent dryness. Better still, use soap as sparingly as possible, and instead have a "Balsam Hair Cleanse." Just moisten a cloth with balsam and draw it carefully through your hair taking one strand at a time. This will remove dust, dirt and excessive oil. In a few moments you will be amazed your hair will not only be clean but will be wavy, fluffy and abundant and possess an incomparable softness and lustre.

Besides cleaning and beautifying the hair, one application of balsam dissolves every particle of dandruff, stimulates the scalp, strengthens skin and falling hair. Balsam is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exfoliating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow longer strong and beautiful.

Men! Ladies! You can surely have joy of charming hair. Get a 25 cent bottle of Knottown's Balsam from any drug store or toilet counter and try it.

NO SLAPSTICK SHOW IS ENTERTAINMENT OF
DIXIE QUINTETTE

"Gentlemen, be seated." Mr. Johnson, why does a chick-en cross the street?" No, no, no, gentle reader. Nothing like that in the Dixie Quintette, who come here on Saturday night. No old, stale, hackneyed jokes for this aggregation of entertainers. Only the up-to-the-minute "stuff," only the best of music, both vocal and instrumental, will they be guilty of putting over."

The Redpath bureau, under whose auspices the Dixie Quintette comes to Albuquerque, is without doubt the largest organization of this kind in the world. It believes in the best. If it wants a comedian it gets Bryan-McGill, Folk or Clark. If it wants the best interpreters of Shakespeare it puts the Ben Greetes before its audience and if it wants the best word in negro entertainers it puts the Dixie Quintette on the road. The Dixies are coming here and great will be the fan and enjoyment when the curtain rises on the famous organization.

Imagine the best negro singing you ever heard, then multiply this by 50, and the answer will be the Dixie Quintette.

DUCK SEASON OVER:
MANY TEARS SHED

No Shooting Whatever Goes
After Last Day of January
According to That Dear Government.

Ye sportsmen who have tears to shed, prepare to shed them now.

The duck season is over; closed, past, no more, relegated to the limbo of things that were.

To answer to some dozens of pleading inquirers, that is the done Deputy Game Warden Tony Orrix is giving out today on authority from Santa Fe, backed by instructions from Washington.

"You can shoot quail till January 21," said Mr. Orrix this afternoon, "and after then everything is closed until the dove season opens next July."

The mortality among rabbits and birds promises to be fearful.

The Ladies' Missionary Circle of the Baptist church, will meet tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. J. H. Compton, 207 East Gold avenue.

I have power to express that I could have greater assurance that there will be a meeting with those we know but that I should look forward with pleasure to the passing years. Not having this belief, I am quite content to stay where I am as long as I can; and finally, when old Charon appears to row me over the river Styx I shall be ready to go.

believe that I could meet the loved ones who have gone before, I do not know but that I should look forward with pleasure to the passing years.
